

Justice Department Ordered to Defend Religious Liberty U.S. Attorneys Defying Trump

Public Advocate's have exposed the U.S. Attorneys failure to protect Religious Liberty.

President Trump has fought time and time again to defend Religious Freedom in America.

And since he promised to do so in 2016, the D.C. Swamp has repeatedly undermined and ignored President Trump's orders to defend Religious Liberty.

President Trump issued Executive Order 13798 (May 4, 2017), which was titled "Promoting Free Speech and Religious Liberty," to enforce protections for Religious Freedom.

The 94 U.S. Attorneys were then ordered to designate a "Religious Liberty point of contact" to lead each office in protecting Religious Liberty.

But Public Advocate made a shocking discovery about the U.S. Attorneys.

Fighting for Answers

In April 2018, Public Advocate filed a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request with the DOJ to make sure that the Swamp bureaucracy was actually obeying President Trump.

Religious Liberty on Trial in Two New Cases

Transsexual Agenda Reaches Supreme Court

Public Advocate of the United States has long fought against the dangerous Gay Bill of Special Rights in Congress.

Today, the Gay Bill of Special Rights is officially known as the "Equality Act."

But in reality, it creates a protected class status for homosexuals and transsexuals at the expense of Religious Liberty.

With the support of pro-Family Americans like you, Public Advocate's efforts has kept this legislation at bay.

But now, two cases at the Supreme Court threaten to enact this crown jewel of the radical Homosexual Agenda into law just like they did with so-called homosexual "marriage."

Homosexuals Attacking Businesses

Public Advocate has filed amicus briefs on behalf of two businesses currently facing trial at the Supreme Court.

Homosexual Lobby Behind Trump Impeachment

Move To Overturn 2016 Election Results Well Underway

After years of attacks from the Homosexual Lobby and their allies on the far-Left, President Donald Trump is now facing a concerted effort to remove him from office.

Led by Democrat Adam Schiff, a key ally of the Homosexual Lobby in Washington, the impeachment coup against the President is now well underway.

And the radical allies of the Homosexual lobby are expected to make the final push to remove Trump from office soon.

If the Democrats in Congress are able to remove Trump from office, it could be a blow to religious liberty that America may never recover from.

Public Advocate Fights Impeachment

President Trump has led the fight to defend Christian Values since the day he took office, which is a key reason why Democrats are eager to remove him as President.

With the Homosexual Lobby

openly calling for Donald Trump's removal from office, Public Advocate is leading the fight in Washington against the coup effort against the President.

Thanks to the support of Public Advocate members and supporters across the country, Congress is being inundated with petitions urging them not to overturn the will of the people in the 2016 election.

Impeachment: Thinly Disguised Coup

And these efforts to protect Trump from a bogus impeachment process designed to destroy his pro-Family values administration could be decisive in the battle to stop Democrats in their tracks.

"The Left is determined to prevent anyone who supports Traditional Values from holding public office altogether, and it's up to us to derail their efforts," added Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio.

With little to no evidence, Democrats continue to move forward with their attempts to remove the President from office via impeachment.

Public Advocate Defends Trump

Public Advocate members are pushing back to expose the carefully disguised coup against Trump designed to undo the results of the 2016 election.

"The American people will not stand for this," said Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio.

"Democrats have never accepted

Mr. Delgaudio and Public Advocate are standing with Trump to stop the Left's witch hunt.

the 2016 election results, and this impeachment is just another sign that they refuse to recognize Trump as a legitimate President," explained Mr. Delgaudio.

"Public Advocate will stand up to the Homosexual Lobby in Washington that continues to push for President Trump's removal from office," concluded Mr. Delgaudio. 🇺🇸

Biased Media Attacks Young Christians

Earlier this year, 16-year-old Nicholas Sandmann was thrust into the national headlines after being confronted while on a class trip to Washington, D.C.

Sandmann and his classmates were aggressively targeted by an elderly Native American.

Because Sandmann was wearing a “Make America Great Again” hat, he was the perfect villain for the liberal media.

Biased news outlets like The Washington Post jumped at the chance to portray this young Christian as a racist.

The truth did eventually come out though, proving the media as the propagandists they are.

But it was too late. This young Christian had already had his reputation smeared, resulting in nationwide scorn from liberals.

Teenage Girl Confronts Homosexual Lobby

Another 16-year-old, Selina Soule,

Young Christians like Selina Soule refuse to bow down to the Left's radical agenda.

Nick Sandmann faced countless threats from the Left thanks to the mainstream media's Fake News.

has had her rights to compete on a level playing field against other girls in track and field ripped away.

Soule has lost out on running at higher levels, which may hurt her ability to earn college scholarships for her running talents.

Instead, thanks to the law in Connecticut, her shot at track glory has been unfairly stolen by several transgender athletes.

These athletes are biological males competing in the girls' division. They have even erased decades worth of women's track records due to their inherent genetic advantages.

Public Advocate Supports Bold Young Christians

But young Christians who risk it all to fight for Traditional Values need support and encouragement to continue to stand firm and be bold.

Today's world opposes Traditional Christian Values and ideals.

The challenges facing young people are unimagined by older generations.

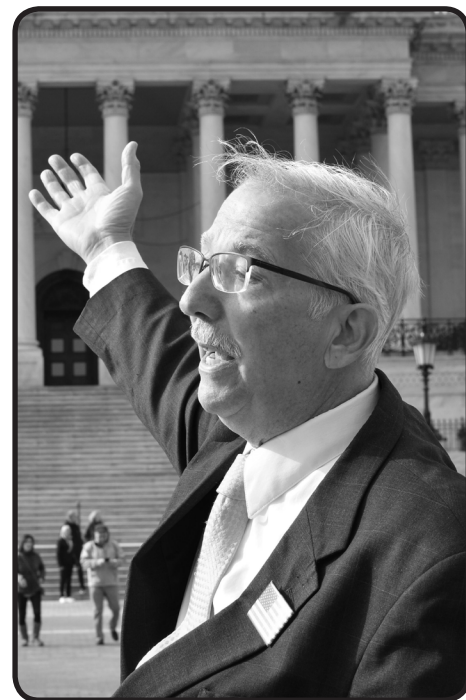

They are forced to face not only unprecedented peer pressure, but also the Homosexual Lobby and its accomplices in the liberal mainstream media.

Delgaudio Vows To Defend

Public Advocate is rallying support for these young Christians and others.

Sandmann and Soule are both in legal battles to fight for their rights, and any encouragement goes a long way.

According to Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio, “These young people will be all that's left in the fight to protect Traditional American Values once you and I leave this world.” 🇺🇸

Mr. Delgaudio believes that true patriots should encourage our young Christians to stand strong.

Homosexual Lobby Seeking Destruction of Gender

The Homosexual Lobby is pushing for biological men who merely identify as transgender “women” to compete in women’s sports, and the result could bring about the end of women’s sports for good.

The push to allow men to compete in women’s sports began under the Obama Administration, which authored new rules that allowed the transgender athletes to compete in sports under their preferred gender.

Men Invading Women’s Sports

And now, women across the field are being placed at a competitive disadvantage by being forced to compete against biological men in fields like cross-country running, weightlifting, and more.

When men compete in women’s sports, they almost always win because they have a natural advantage.

If this trend continues, women

Transgender “girls” are destroying biological women’s opportunity to succeed in their preferred sport.

Mr. Delgaudio explains the dangers of allowing biological men to compete in women’s sports.

could be shut out of sports for good as more and more transgender “women” compete against them in a growing number of competitions.

Women Athletes Fight Back

But not all women athletes are letting the Homosexual Lobby get away with destroying women’s sports.

Like Selina Soule, a biological female high school track athlete in Connecticut, who has had to face transgender “girls” during competitions.

Selina is now fighting the Department of Education over having to compete with biological males on the field.

Public Advocate Petitions the Department of Education

“The battle over transgender sports could soon make its way to Washington.” exclaimed Mr. Delgaudio.

Public Advocate is now fighting to make sure that transgender “women” and their allies in the Homosexual Lobby do not get to destroy women’s sports for good.

“The Department of Education needs to see for themselves why this creates an unfair advantage when biological men can compete in women’s sports,” said Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio.

“Women like Selina Soule need our help and it’s Public Advocate’s duty to show the Department of Education that this is wrong,” concluded Mr. Delgaudio. 🌱

“A simple FOIA request is nothing special, so you can imagine my surprise when the government failed to answer,” Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio stated.

“In fact, we received no response

Mr. Delgaudio and Public Advocate are calling on U.S. Attorneys to do their job and protect Religious Liberty.

from the government at all until we filed suit in the District of Columbia,” continued Mr. Delgaudio.

However, what Public Advocate discovered when the DOJ finally produced the demanded records is troubling.

Out of the 94 U.S. Attorneys’ offices, only 20 of them could provide records showing compliance with the President’s order -- and three of those only complied after Public Advocate brought suit to get answers.

Defeating the Entrenched Swamp

It seems that protecting Religious Liberty has not been all that important to the U.S. Attorneys nationwide, and that thought is very troubling,” lamented Mr. Delgaudio.

The documents obtained by Public Advocate demonstrate that, while Religious Liberty protection is important to the President...

... it is not important at all to the U.S. Attorneys’ offices around the country.

“Public Advocate’s FOIA litigation has shown that government officials cannot be expected to carry out the President’s instructions,” sighed Mr. Delgaudio.

In the face of this negligence by the U.S. Attorneys’ offices, Public Advocate is kick-starting programs to put pressure on them to defend Religious Liberty.

“There are millions of Christians counting on them to do what taxpayers like us pay them to do, and that’s following the President’s orders,” insisted Mr. Delgaudio.

“It’s up to pro-Family Americans like us to help President Trump by demanding U.S. Attorneys to take action,” Mr. Delgaudio concluded. 🌱

U.S. Attorney General Defends Religious Liberty

William Barr Exposes the Homosexual Lobby

During a speech at Notre Dame, U.S. Attorney General William Barr exposed the Homosexual Lobby and their allies’ efforts to destroy Religious Liberty.

Barr explained how the radical Homosexual Lobby, “have marshaled all the forces of mass communication, popular culture, the entertainment industry, and academia in an unrelenting assault on religion and Traditional Values.”

Barr even told the young crowd how America is on a social decline now that religion is being rescinded from public life and how the Homosexual Lobby’s “organized destruction” is at the root of this.

During his speech, Barr also took the opportunity to urge the audience to help defend Religious Liberty and laid out how the Trump Administration is doing its part to protect Religious Freedom.

Barr Vows to Protect Religious Liberty

During his closing statements, Barr called on all of the God-fearing Americans to “resist the efforts by the forces of secularization to drive religious viewpoints from the public square and to impinge upon the free exercise of our faith.”

“Speeches like this make the Homosexual Lobby nervous, and it’s something very few are willing to do anymore,” added Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio.

“Our Founding Fathers knew that religion was indispensable to sustaining our free system of government. And as Barr said, it’s our duty to protect it,” explained Mr. Delgaudio.

“That’s why your Public Advocate must do whatever it takes to ensure the Attorney General’s words don’t go unnoticed,” concluded Mr. Delgaudio. 🌱

Attorney General William Barr has made it his priority to defend Religious Freedom.

Dr. Ben Carson Protecting Women

HUD Rules Out Men in Women's Shelters

President Obama's Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Department adopted policies that put women in danger by requiring they admit any man who "identifies as a woman" into shelters for homeless and battered women!

Fortunately, President Trump's Department, run by Dr. Ben Carson, is listening to the cries of women across the nation and putting a stop to this dangerous policy.

Dr. Carson in the Crosshairs

But the Homosexual Lobby is furious at this setback to their radical agenda, and they're taking it out on Dr. Carson!

These shelters are meant to be safe havens for women who have been beaten, assaulted or even raped.

And even though Dr. Carson's statement did come with good intentions, Radical activists within the HUD instantly turned to the liberal media with accusations against him.

Public Advocate Defends Carson

"It's just absolutely ridiculous that radicals in Congress are actually demanding that he apologize for protecting women! We can't let Dr. Carson stand alone in this crucial fight," commented Public Advocate President Eugene Delgaudio.

"I've already begun collecting petitions from thousands of pro-

Family Americans across the country in support of Dr. Carson, and the response is overwhelming," added Mr. Delgaudio. 🇺🇸

Dr. Ben Carson was publically attacked for defending women from the Left's radical transgender agenda.

Huge Victory For Christian Business Owner in AZ

State Supreme Court Rules In Favor of Religious

Joanna Duka and Breanna Koski owners of a small printing shop lived in fear that the Homosexual Lobby would destroy their business.

The City of Phoenix, AZ passed a local ordinance that threatened all local business owners with a heavy penalty of $2,500 and up to 6 months in jail if they refused to participate in homosexual "weddings."

Rather than wait for radical homosexual activists to target them for persecution, Joanna and Breanna sued the city of Phoenix.

State Supreme Court Rules In Favor of Religious Freedom

After three years, the Arizona Supreme Court ruled that they cannot be forced by the government to make invitations for homosexual "marriages."

However, the Arizona Supreme Court's ruling only applies to this particular business and circumstances.

Just The Beginning

"Any day now, Duka and Koski could be thrown right back into this twilight zone," added Eugene Delgaudio, President of Public Advocate.

"There are still Christians across the country being pummeled by the Homosexual Lobby in a battle to restore their right to Religious Freedom," concluded Mr. Delgaudio. 🇺🇸 company based in Georgia, is being sued by the estate of an ex-employee who was terminated for berating fellow employees with his radical pro-homosexual propaganda.

And in the second case, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission is suing a Michigan-based funeral home that terminated an employee who refused to comply with the company's sex-specific dress code.

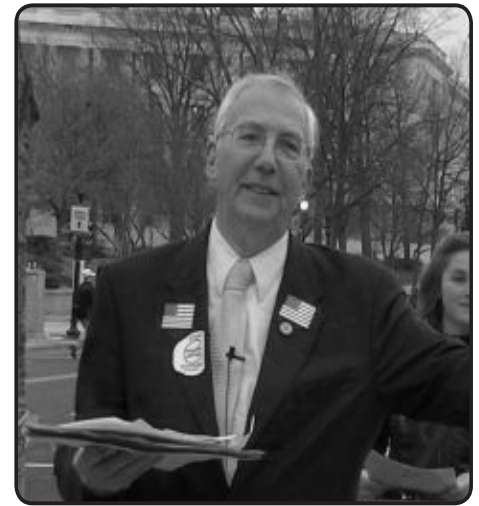

Judicial Fiat Rules Again?

According to Public Advocate

president Eugene Delgaudio, these cases could very well unleash the Homosexual Lobby's fury to persecute Christians with the full force of the law on their side.

"The Supreme Court's decision to legislate from the bench and legalized so-called homosexual 'marriage' nationwide has been a disaster for our country," stated Mr. Delgaudio.

"Without a decisive action, I'm afraid we could again see the Supreme Court strike a blow against Traditional Values," Mr. Delgaudio concluded. 🇺🇸

Mr. Delgaudio has rallied thousands of supporters to sign on to Public Advocate's Amicus Briefs in the crucial U.S. Supreme Court case.

Leftists Assault Churches and Non-Profits

Christian Non-Profits Could Lose Tax Status

Rep. John Lewis (D) is pushing for a bill that would deny tax exempt status from Pro-Family groups, like Public Advocate and Churches who oppose the Homosexual Agenda, tax-exempt status.

"The Homosexual Lobby is adamantly trying to shut down every organization that disagrees with its radical Agenda, starting with us here at Public Advocate," said President of Public Advocate, Eugene Delgaudio.

Christian State of Emergency

Under this radical bill, any Church that dares to speak on Biblical principals will be taxed on every offering plate.

And every generous contribution from Pro-Family supporters to groups like Public Advocate will be halved as the government takes their piece.

In essence, this would destroy morality in this country, as churches and groups would either go silent or close their doors.

Most Important Fight of Our Lifetime

According to Mr. Delgaudio, defeating passage of this bill could end up being the most important fight in the nation.

"Luckily for Christians, passage of this bill is a long shot – even in Nancy Pelosi's Congress," assured Mr. Delgaudio.

Mr. Delgaudio and Public Advocate have delivered over 200,000 petitions to put pressure on congress.

"But Homosexual 'marriage' was a long-shot when I first arrived in DC, but radical Leftists kept inching it closer and closer till it finally became the law of the land," explained Mr. Delgaudio.

"We cannot let those radicals play the same game again with our churches and Pro-Family groups," argued Mr. Delgaudio.

We must stop them here and now," concluded Mr. Delgaudio. 🇺🇸

Under Lewis' bill, churches would be either silenced or shuttered.

Public Advocate On The Move

By: Hon. Eugene Delgaudio

President,
Public Advocate of the United States

As we look back on 2019, it's safe to say the state of our country's culture would astonish the average American from even 10 years ago.

This year alone, you and I have seen Religious Liberties buried by liberal activist judges and undermined by anti-Family bureaucrats like never before.

Even the Bible is being scorned by the liberal elites in American courtrooms and classrooms.

When America was created, our founders made sure that you and I could freely worship and practice religion as we see fit.

But this freedom is being picked apart by those who are obsessed with destroying anything that doesn't align with their fantasy.

That's why you and I are seeing the government impose the Left's radical vision on every God-fearing American.

It's why we're seeing Christians being constantly oppressed by government bureaucrats and an aggressive "popular" culture.

But what's most concerning is seeing a government that ignores the Constitution and uses its powers to lock up, silence, and discriminate Christians who stand up for their beliefs.

Nevertheless, even with the daily persecution you and I see, I have faith that Christian Morality will prevail.

You see, I've witnessed the continued perseverance of supporters like you who reach out to me and show how much they believe in what Public Advocate is fighting for.

And it's because of this daily support that keeps me focused and confident in our mission despite the fury directed at me, my supporters, and even my family.

I am humbled by your continued support for Public Advocate's fight to defend Religious Liberty and Traditional Values.

And I am counting on your continued support going into 2020 as Public Advocate battles against these radical attacks on Traditional Values and fights to defend the right to Religious Liberty.
